Local Head Malmö (f/m/d)

About you
- Entrepreneurial spirit and a passion for building something new from the ground
- Experience in the fields of adult education, tech and/or social integration
- Fluent in Swedish and English
- Experience in project development and evaluation
- Experience in team leadership
- Experience in donor and partner relations management
- Good understanding of social integration sector in Malmö
- Good communication skills
- Flexibility to adapt to fast-changing situations
- Experience working in multicultural contexts
- Availability to work on the weekends

Role description
You will be in charge of leading the build up and development of the first ReDI School in Sweden. Your main tasks will include:
- Team leadership and personnel management
- Carrying out administrative and logistical tasks related to the operation of the Malmö site
- Management and development of a private-public partnership network (donors, sponsors, partners)
- Reporting and development of monitoring and evaluation models for quality assurance of the programme
- Planning, design and coordination of the programme
- Liaising and sharing knowledge with other ReDI School programmes

About us
- Reliable, helpful, caring and playful: those are our organisational values
- We use tech to connect human potential and opportunity with dignity and humility
- We focus on providing learners with useful skills to support their accelerated integration
- Lots of heart and a fast paced opportunity driven non-profit, aiming for big, measurable impact
- Community driven and co-creative approach to societal innovation

Now let's start the conversation!
Apply via email (hr@redi-school.org) before January 3rd 2022 and tell us why you are perfect for the job! Please include your CV.